In 2019 Richie released his single “Bad Habits” which landed over half a million streams, followed by “We Used To” ft. Heather Sommer and Jon Kunis which recently surpassed over 8 million views/streams on YouTube + Spotify. Richie’s most recent single dropped was “Keep On Coming”, breaking over 200k streams in 2020. With COVID in play, Richie took some time to recognize what matters and rebrand his sound, with 6 new records planned for 2023 release, produced by LA producers Kunis and Stavros.

Currently residing in Brooklyn, NY, Richie decided to take his passion for the creative space to the next level, opening 1Moore Studios for artists alike to create with no bounds. Hosting a monthly showcase (The 1Moore Xperience), which has attracted multiple venues including SohoHouse, performing alongside artists from a multitude of genres including Koncept, John Splithoff, Meg Smith, Baker Grace, and more.

This year, Richie most recently played at the Dallas Cowboy Stadium with world renowned DJ AFISHAL. He currently has a weekly residency at The Seville with his band every Thursday and Friday making a splash on Manhattan's nightlife scene. Richie's newest single Next To Me just came out with a billboard in Times Square to kick off his release.

Richie Nuzz

Artist and Founder

Beginning his career as a fashion model, Richie appeared in music videos like “Last Friday Night” by Katy Perry and “Work Bitch” by Britney Spears. Richie’s passion for music eventually drove him to start releasing his own music which quickly gained attention, being recognized by Atlanta’s People Choice for two years leading him to open for acts like Kendrick Lamar, NAS, Jhené Aiko, Ryan Leslie, and more. He has now accumulated millions of streams on his own original music.

Richie Nuzz brings a fresh sense of authenticity and raw emotion to lush Pop music. Working with a tight knit group of producers, the NYC native combines elements of Pop R&B with captivating trombone solos, rich vocals and thought provoking lyrics.

Richie Nuzz and his group are a four piece band with a Jazz and R&B sound. The band includes saxophone, bass, keys and drums. The band backs Richie Nuzz with his singing and his addition with the trombone at all their performances. They have original songs and a repertoire of classic cover songs everyone knows and loves.
